List of Limitations

Limitation	Description
BlockingLimitation	Generic limitation that always tells the permissions system that the user has no access, causing it to continue to the next policy.
ContentTypeLimitation	Limits content access depending on its Content Type.
LanguageLimitation	Limits content access depending on its Language.
LocationLimitation	Limits content access depending on its Location.
NewObjectStateLimitation	Limits content ObjectState assignment access depending on new state.
NewSectionLimitation	Limits content Section assignment access depending on new Section.
ObjectStateLimitation	Limits content access depending on its ObjectStates.
OwnerLimitation	Limits content access depending on its owner; access is only granted to the owner of the content.
ParentContentTypeLimitation	Limits content (create) access depending on parent location Content Type; access is only granted if the parent is of this type of content.
ParentDepthLimitation	Limits content (create) access depending on parent location depth; access is only granted if the parent is at a given depth of the tree structure.
ParentOwnerLimitation	Limits content (create) access depending on parent location content owner; access is only granted if to the owner of the Content item's parent.
ParentUserGroupLimitation	Limits content (create) access depending on parent location content owner's User group; access is only granted to a User in the same User group as owner of the Content item's parent.
SectionLimitation	Limits content access depending on its Section.
SiteAccessLimitation	Limits access to an action depending on siteaccess, typically used for user/login.
SubtreeLimitation	Limits content access depending on its subtree.
UserGroupLimitation	Limits content access depending on its owner's User group; access is only granted to a User in the same User group as the owner.

c

In this topic:

Related topics:

Permissions